INTERNATIONAL BEACH WRESTLING REGULATIONS

FOREWORD

Beach Wrestling is a new wrestling style that was codified by FILA upon decision of its Congress in 2004. Beach Wrestling can be understood in two different ways:

- As a fun sport aimed at popularizing wrestling among the general population. In this situation, the present regulations can be adjusted, as well as the age and weight categories.
- As an official competition sport. In this case, the present regulations must be strictly applied. The international tournaments and championships are subject to the same requirements as the wrestling competitions.

ARTICLE 1 – OBJECTIVE

The International Beach Wrestling Regulations have notably as objective to:

- Set the practical and technical conditions in which the matches must take place.
- Set the value of each action in order to determine the victory at the end of the match.
- Define the referee's role
- Define the competition system, the ranking, the elimination, etc.

ARTICLE 2 – APPLICATION

The present Regulations apply to all Continental and World Championships and to all international tournaments.

ARTICLE 3 – AGE CATEGORIES

- Cadet: 10-15 years old in the year
- Junior: 16-20 years old in the year
- Senior: 21 years old and more in the year

Note: Junior wrestlers aged from 18 to 20 in the year can participate in senior competitions.

ARTICLE 4 – WEIGHT CATEGORIES

- Cadet: Men 60 kg and + 60 kg
Women 55 kg and + 55 kg
- Junior: Men 70 kg and + 70 kg
Women 60 kg and + 60 kg
- Senior: Men 85 kg and + 85 kg
Women 70 kg and + 70 kg
- An absolute category for the two first and the two second of the light and heavy weight categories.

ARTICLE 5 – COMPETITION UNIFORM

- Men: bathing suit with no other accessory.
- Women: two-piece bathing suit with no other accessory.
- At the beginning of the match, the participants receive a red or blue ankle band and give it back to the referee at the end of the match.

ARTICLE 6 – COMPETITION AREA

The competition area is composed of a 6-meter circle made with a 10-centimeter red ribbon that must contain no metal parts. It must be filled with a 30-centimeter layer of fine sand containing no stones, shells or other objects.

ARTICLE 7 – WEIGH-IN

No weigh-in is required for promotional competition. The participants are divided according to their corpulence in order to quickly obtain an ideal divisible number.

For official tournaments and Championships, the weigh-in must take place one hour before the competition and last 30 minutes.

ARTICLE 8 – TOURNAMENT PROCEDURE

A drawing of lots is done at weigh-in and the participants are placed in the brackets according to their number, from the lowest to the highest one. The competition follows that order.

A competition sheet will be printed for all weight categories and will provide all useful information on the progress of the competition.

The results of all matches must be recorded on a billboard to enable the participants to follow the competition at all times.

ARTICLE 9 – DURATION OF THE MATCHES

The duration of the matches is set to one period of 3 minutes for all age and weight categories.

ARTICLE 10 – TYPES OF VICTORIES

Beach Wrestling only takes place in standing position. Victory can be obtained in the following ways:

- Fall: when a wrestler manages to hold both of his opponent's shoulders to the ground.
- Takedown: when a wrestler manages to bring any part of his opponent to the ground twice during the match.
- Out of bounds: when a wrestler manages to bring his opponent out of the competition bounds twice during the match.
- Decision: if at the end of the 3 minutes, no action was carried out, the referee must determine the winner according to both wrestlers' manifest activity.

Note: when executing an action, the attacker can put a knee or two (or other body parts) to the ground.

ARTICLE 11 – COMPETITION SYSTEM

The competitions take place according to the direct elimination system with:

- Pairing according to the drawing of lots.
- Qualification matches to find the ideal number from the bottom of the brackets.
- Elimination rounds and repechage for all wrestlers who lost against the two finalists.
- The winners of the two semi-finals are both ranked 3rd.
- From the 5th place, the wrestlers are ranked according to the following criteria:
 - Most victories during the competition
 - Most victories by fall
 - Most victories by takedown
 - Most combined victories (takedown and out of bounds)
 - Most victories by out of bounds
 - Most victories by decision
- The two first of the light and heavy categories must make a match to determine the winner of the absolute category.
- The two second of the light and heavy categories must make a match to determine the 3rd of the absolute category.

ARTICLE 12 – REFEREEING

- For promotional competitions, the coordinator works as referee and his decisions are final. In case of official FILA competitions, the referee must bear a FILA licence. He must stop the match after each action and anytime a wrestler touches the ground. The match restarts at the referee's whistle in the centre of the circle.
- A member of the competition secretariat must record each action whistled by the referee on a score sheet and report the winner on the competition sheet.
- The referee must wear white shorts (or pants), a white short-sleeved shirt and a red wristband on the left arm and a blue wristband on the right arm.

ARTICLE 13 – ILLEGAL ACTIONS

- Pulling the hair or ears, pinching the skin, twisting the fingers, etc.
- Punching and kicking
- Attacking the face
- Holds causing dislocations
- Ground wrestling
- Greasy or slippery coated skin
- Stopping the match for any reason
- Agreeing on the match's result with the opponent

ARTICLE 14 – MEDICAL SERVICE

The organizer of the competition must provide medical service.

If a participant is injured or bleeds, the competition doctor will have an unlimited time to fix the injury and decide whether the match can continue or not.
